SYNPOSIS

On July 12, 2017, an Internal Affairs Bureau Force and Shooting Rollout Team comprised of Lieutenant Quitman V. Carter and Sergeants Jaime Alvarez and Scott Chapman, responded to Lancaster Sheriff's Station regarding a use of force. The use of force occurred at [redacted] Redwood Avenue, in the city of Lancaster. The use of force resulted in the suspect sustaining a broken right humerus bone. The incident was documented under URN #917-13454-1132-339. Refer to [Exhibit A].

SUMMARY

On July 12, 2017, Lancaster Station received a disturbance call at [redacted] in the city of Lancaster, tag-93 [Exhibit B]. The call indicated a female named Keisha (later identified as Suspect London) was harassing and threatening the informant with a shovel.

Unit 111A, Deputy Chappell received the call for service and coordinated the call with assisting units. Upon Deputy Chappell's arrival, he observed Suspect London standing in the middle of Kildare Street between Trevor Avenue and Spearman Avenue. Deputy Chappell observed Suspect London holding and striking the point of a shovel on the ground and appeared as if Suspect London was preparing to use the shovel as a weapon. Deputy Chappell relayed Suspect London's actions to assisting units via his hand held portable radio on Lancaster Station's L-TAC-11 frequency.

While keeping a safe distance (30-40 yards) from Suspect London, Deputy Chappell made approximately 10 announcements by using his patrol vehicle's public address system (P.A.), ordering Suspect London to drop the shovel. Suspect London did not comply and continued striking the shovel on the ground and periodically swung the shovel in a threatening manner. Assisting units arrived on scene and assisted Deputy Chappell as needed.

IAB Note: Unit 110S, Sergeant Dan Wolanski arrived at the location at approximately 0719 hours. Unit 113S, Sergeant Gregory Kelly also arrived and provided a video camera that recorded Suspect London's behavior and the use of force [EXHIBIT C].

IAB Note: Deputy Chappell contacted the informant [redacted] and confirmed Suspect London had threatened her and her [redacted] Both parties were in fear and scared to leave their residence, due to Suspect London's actions. Deputy Chappell formed the opinion the crime of Criminal Threats, 422(a) of the Penal Code occurred.

Sergeant Wolanksi along with Deputies Chappell, [redacted] and Ruiz began walking toward Suspect London, while keeping a safe distance. Deputy Ruiz was designated with less lethal (stunbag). Sergeant Wolanski attempted to convince Suspect London to place the shovel on the ground; however, Suspect London did not comply, raised the shovel above her head, and swung it several times in a batting motion.

Suspect London began walking eastbound on Kildare Street reaching Redwood Avenue. Suspect London proceeded southbound on Redwood Avenue and crossed Lancaster Boulevard, all while doing so at a slow pace. Suspect London stopped on the west sidewalk of Redwood Avenue and turned to face deputy personnel. Sergeant Wolanski and Deputy Chappell both gave her additional verbal commands to drop the shovel and sit on the curb. Suspect London did not comply and continued walking southbound on Redwood Avenue. Suspect London walked westbound through an alleyway and proceeded southbound through another alleyway west of Redwood Avenue. Deputies Chappell, [redacted] Jenkins, Ruiz, Vanarsdale and Sergeant Wolanski followed Suspect London, while keeping their distance (30-40 yards). Suspect London entered the backyard of [redacted] Redwood Avenue. The property was a [redacted] and appeared abandoned. Deputy personnel temporarily lost sight of Suspect London and immediately established a containment around the property. As Deputies Chappell, [redacted] and Sergeant Wolanski made entry into the backyard of [redacted] Redwood Avenue, Sergeant Wolanski observed Suspect London inside one of the [redacted] through an open window. Suspect London was standing in what appeared to be a living room, armed with the shovel.

Deputies Chappell, [redacted] and Sergeant Wolanski walked to the front of the duplex. The front of the residence had an open window, which appeared to be Suspect London's point of entry. Suspect London was standing directly over an unidentified male Black (Witness [redacted]), who was lying on a mattress on the living room floor. It was unknown if Witness [redacted] was injured. He was lying face down on the mattress, as Suspect London stood over him, holding the shovel with her hands.

Fearing Suspect London was going to assault Witness [redacted] Sergeant Wolanski and Deputy Chappell discussed the option of using the Taser through the open window; however, as they reached the open window, Suspect London slammed the window shut. Based on Suspect London's offense of Criminal Threats, 422(a) PC, and not following direct orders to disarm herself with the shovel, coupled with the possibility she had assaulted or was getting ready to assault Witness [redacted] Deputy Chappell kicked the front door open.

Deputy Chappell immediately made entry as Sergeant Wolanski and Deputy [redacted] followed. Suspect London was standing with her back against the living room wall approximately ten feet from the front door. Sergeant Wolanski told Suspect London the Taser was going to be used; however, Suspect London ignored him and held onto the shovel with both hands. Fearing Suspect London was going to assault Witness [redacted] with the shovel, he employed the Taser; however, it appeared the Taser did not have an effect on Suspect London. Suspect London clenched her body and did not release the shovel. Deputy Chappell yelled the Taser was ineffective; therefore, Deputy [redacted] stepped to the right of both Sergeant Wolanski and Deputy Chappell, employing his Taser, striking Suspect London in the upper torso area. The Taser appeared to have been effective as she tensed her body and released the shovel. Deputy Chappell moved forward toward Suspect London, grabbed her right arm with both of his hands and pulled her forward onto a mattress. Suspect London fell on her left side with her arms tucked under her body, as Deputy Chappell positioned himself to the right of her body.

Deputy Chappell and Sergeant Wolanski gave Suspect London several verbal commands to "go on her stomach." Suspect London refused to comply and continued to resist by tensing her upper body. Deputy Chappell grabbed Suspect London's right arm and attempted to place it behind her back. Deputy Chappell performed this control hold by grabbing her right wrist with his left hand and placing his right arm underneath Suspect London's right upper arm. Suspect London resisted by tensing the muscles in her arm. Deputy Chappell pulled Suspect London's right arm, bending her elbow toward her head and behind her back. On Deputy Chappell's third attempt, he heard and felt a snap in the upper portion of Suspect London's right arm. Suspect London's right arm weakened as it gave way and was placed behind her back. Deputy [redacted] grabbed Suspect London's left arm, placed it behind her back, and was handcuffed by Deputy Chappell. Unit 112B/E, Deputy Brandon Vanarsdale #[redacted] arrived on scene and assisted Suspect London by guiding her body to a seated position, while awaiting for paramedics to arrive.

Los Angeles County Fire, Engine 33 responded to the location and evaluated Suspect London's condition. Suspect London was subsequently transported to Antelope Valley Hospital for further medical treatment. Doctor Scott Spencer treated Suspect London under patient number 01273261. Unit 112/E, Deputy Erik Swanson #[redacted] accompanied paramedics during the transportation of Suspect London. No deputies were injured.

IAB Note: All personnel involved in the Use of Force authored reports [Exhibit A].

INVESTIGATION

The initial contact with Suspect London and the use of force was video recorded by Sergeant Wolanski. Furthermore, Sergeant Wolanski videotaped Witness [redacted] statement, who was present during the use of force.

IAB Sergeants Alvarez and Chapman attempted to interview Suspect London at Antelope Valley Hospital; however, she was extremely uncooperative and refused to be interviewed or provide a statement. Suspect London was interviewed the following day at Los Angeles County Medical Center (LCMC) by IAB Sergeants Alvarez and Chapman.

IAB Note: Antelope Valley, Emergency Room, Doctor Scott Spencer stated the injuries Suspect London sustained were consistent with the amount of force used and reported.

IAB investigators reviewed all written reports authored for the use of force. Deputy Chappell authored the original criminal report and Sergeant Wolanski and Deputy [redacted] prepared supplemental reports describing their observations and actions.

A review of the incident details for tag #93 [EXHIBIT B], determined four deputies and a sergeant (Deputies Ruiz #[redacted](unit 111/D), Jenkins #[redacted](unit 111T1/E), Tanner #redacted, VanArsdale #[redacted](unit 112B/E), Sergeant Kelly #[redacted](unit 113S) were assigned to the call and did not author supplemental reports. Two additional deputies and one detective (Deputy Swanson #[redacted]Deputy Dominguez #[redacted](unit 112A/D), and Detective Edwards #[redacted]) were not assigned to tag-93; however, were present, and did not author supplemental reports.

IAB investigators interviewed the above personnel to determine their involvement. Based on their statements and video provided by Sergeant Wolanski, Sergeant Alvarez determined the above listed personnel were on containment positions prior to the use of force. Furthermore, none of the above Sheriff personnel witnessed or used any force. Based on this information their interviews were not summarized within this investigation.

IAB Note: Lancaster Station informed IAB investigators, Deputy Swanson resigned from the Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department on October 31, 2017. Deputy Swanson's involvement in this incident was to assist fire personnel in the transportation of Suspect London to Antelope Valley Hospital via ambulance. Deputy Swanson was not interviewed.

Utilizing department resources, IAB investigators located 15 calls for service related to Suspect London. All of the calls occurred between April 3, 2014 and July 12, 2017, three of which were mental illness related [Miscellaneous Documents].

The Taser data sheet during the force was reviewed. The data sheet for Deputy Chappell's Taser serial #X00-705724, under sequence #23, revealed the Taser was activated at 7:45:18 hours for a duration of nine seconds. The data sheet for Deputy [redacted] Taser serial #X13004HNT, under sequence #180, revealed the Taser was activated at 7:45:16 hours for a duration of five seconds.

IAB Note: The Taser data sheet provided by Lancaster Station had a discrepancy reflecting the correct time the Tasers were deployed. Taser expert, [redacted] provided the correct times for both Tasers which were documented above. [redacted] provided information regarding the X26E Taser. The Tasers may "drift" (running fast or slightly slow) up to +/- 4 minutes per month, but the average time would be closer to +/- 2 minutes per month. This will occur if the Tasers are not synchronized often (the clock is synchronized when the Taser is connected to Sync software [Miscellaneous Documents].

REVIEW OF RADIO TRANSMISISIONS

The radio transmissions included suspect description, suspect demeanor, and location updates as the suspect fled the deputies. Sergeant Wolanski and other units broadcasted information regarding the suspect's demeanor, weapon in hand, and deployments of less lethal weapons (Stunbag and Taser).

The following is a summary of radio traffic. For exact times, units and verbiage, refer to disk [Exhibit E] containing Dispatch 15 and L-TAC-11 radio traffic.

Dispatch 15

At 0711 hours, SCC transmitted the call for service, tag-93. Sergeant Wolanski arrived at 0719 hours and requested a video camera. A Mental Health Team (S918) was requested at 0727 hours; however, S918 was not available. At 0745 hours, a "902R" (rescue responding) was requested at [redacted] Redwood Avenue. At 0809 hours, a "Code 4" (no further assistance needed) was broadcasted.

L-TAC-11

At 0711 hours, Deputy Chappell assigned a unit with less-lethal (Stunbag). At 0737 hours, Deputy Chappell relayed Suspect London's direction of travel, including suspect description and weapon in hand.

INVOLVED EMPLOYEES' STATEMENTS:

DEPUTY ANDREW CHAPPELL

On February 16, 2018, at approximately 1141 hours, Deputy Andrew Chappell was interviewed by IAB Sergeants Jaime Alvarez and Hank Ortega at the Internal Affairs office. Deputy Chappell was represented by Attorney Susan Jerich from Rains, Lucia and Stern. The interview was audio recorded and transcribed.

On July 12, 2017, Deputy Chappell was assigned to Lancaster Station when he received a disturbance call at [redacted] in the city of Lancaster. The disturbing party, Suspect London, threatened the informant (Witness [redacted] and her [redacted] (Witness [redacted] with a shovel. Suspect London committed the crime of Criminal Threats, 422(a) P.C. Suspect London was followed on foot to [redacted] Redwood Avenue by Department personnel.

Deputy Chappell looked through one of the windows and noticed the house was not furnished. He also saw Witness [redacted] inside the living room, face down on a sole mattress. Deputy Chappell observed Suspect London holding the shovel, standing at the end of the mattress, over Witness [redacted] who was face down. Deputy Chappell stated, "I don't know if she had assaulted him, if she was about to assault him, or what the deal was." Deputy Chappell deemed it an exigency to make entry and did so by kicking the front door. Deputies Chappell and [redacted] along with Sergeant Wolanski made entry.

Believing Suspect London was going to assault Witness [redacted] with the shovel, Deputy Chappell activated his Taser for approximately five seconds from an approximate distance of ten to twelve feet; however, the Taser was not effective. After a second Taser was employed, Deputy Chappell approached Suspect London's right side and conducted a take-down. Deputy Chappell grabbed Suspect London's right wrist with his left hand and placed his right arm underneath Suspect's London right upper arm to gain control. He then attempted to pull Suspect London's right arm behind her back; however, she actively resisted by tensing her upper body. On the third pull, Deputy Chappell "felt and heard a snap" in Suspect London's right upper arm. Deputy Chappell handcuffed Suspect London with the assistance of Deputy [redacted] Deputy Chappell stated, "I was scared that I fractured her arm, so I called out to the other deputies in the room to get paramedics there immediately."

DEPUTY [redacted]

On February 16, 2018, at approximately 1319 hours, Deputy [redacted] was interviewed by IAB Sergeants Jaime Alvarez and Henry Ortega at the Internal Affairs office. Deputy [redacted] was represented by Attorney Susan Jerich from Rains, Lucia and Stern. The interview was audio recorded and transcribed.

On July 12, 2017, Deputy [redacted] responded to a disturbance call involving Suspect London. Deputy [redacted] assisted and followed Suspect London to [redacted] Redwood Avenue in his patrol vehicle. Deputy [redacted] exited his patrol vehicle and assisted Deputy Chappell and Sergeant Wolanski as they made entry into the back yard of [redacted] Redwood Avenue. As they approached the residence, Sergeant Wolanski told them Suspect London was inside the residence. As they reached the front of the residence, Deputy [redacted] saw Suspect London close a front facing window. A few moments later, Deputy Chappell forced entry into the residence.

Deputy [redacted] followed Deputy Chappell and Sergeant Wolanski inside the residence and saw Suspect London standing in the living room; Suspect London appeared agitated and angry. Deputy Chappell employed his Taser at Suspect London as she held the shovel across her chest. Deputy Chappell yelled the Taser did not have any effect. Deputy [redacted] stated "I was scared, at this point. She was already agitated. She'd already threatened people with the shovel. I was afraid she was going to assault us, now, since we were in such proximity, so then, I aimed my Taser at her, center mass, and I employed it."

Deputy [redacted] activated his Taser for approximately five seconds striking Suspect London in her upper torso. Deputy Chappell conducted a take-down of Suspect London, causing her to land on a mattress. Deputy [redacted] placed his left hand on Suspect London's right shoulder and as Deputy Chappell pulled on Suspect London's right arm, Deputy [redacted] heard a "snap." Deputy [redacted] grabbed Suspect London's left arm with both hands and placed it behind her back.

SWORN WITNESS STATEMENTS:

SERGEANT DANIEL WOLANSKI

On February 15, 20187, at approximately 1426 hours, Sergeant Daniel Wolanski was interviewed by IAB Sergeants Jaime Alvarez and Javier Azteca at the Internal Affairs office. The interview was audio recorded and transcribed.

Sergeant Wolanski was working unit 110S (Lancaster Field Sergeant), on the day of the incident. Sergeant Wolanski responded to [redacted] regarding a disturbance call. Upon arrival, Sergeant Wolanski saw Suspect London holding a shovel in the middle of the street. Sergeant Wolanski began recording Suspect London's behavior and assigned less lethal weapons to deputies. Sergeant Wolanski said Suspect London began to walk away from them and entered a vacant house ([redacted] Redwood Avenue) through the backyard. Sergeant Wolanski saw Suspect London inside the vacant house holding the shovel, pacing back and forth, and appeared agitated. Inside the vacant house, was another person on a mattress, near Suspect London. Deputy Chappell kicked the front door in and made entry as Sergeant Wolanski and Deputy [redacted] followed. Deputy Chappell employed his Taser; however, it did not have the desired effect. Deputy [redacted] employed his Taser and Suspect London fell on a mattress. Sergeant Wolanski said Deputy Chappell attempted to pull Suspect London's arm from underneath her; however, she actively resisted by tensing her upper body. Deputy Chappell pulled Suspect London's arm behind her back and was handcuffed with the assistance of Deputy [redacted] Sergeant Wolanski stated Deputy Chappell heard a "break" when he placed Suspect London's arm behind her back.

On March 8, 2017, at approximately 1234 hours, IAB investigator, Sergeant Jaime Alvarez conducted a follow up interview with Sergeant Daniel Wolanski at Lancaster Station. The interview was audio recorded and transcribed.

Sergeant Wolanski stated after determining Suspect London committed the crime of criminal threats, he formulated a tactical plan with the deputies on scene in efforts to apprehend Suspect London. Sergeant Wolanski stated prior to assigning the deputies with less lethal weapons, he saw Deputy Chappell armed with a Taser and Deputy Ruiz armed with a stunbag. Sergeant Wolanski stated he insured Deputies Chappell and Ruiz used the less lethal weapons if needed.

Sergeant Wolanski stated several verbal commands were given to Suspect London to stop and place the shovel on the ground. Suspect London did not comply with the verbal commands and continued walking away from deputy personnel.

Suspect London was followed to [redacted] Redwood Avenue, where she made entry into the residence. Sergeant Wolanski stated forced entry was made for the following reasons: Suspect London had already committed a crime and there was another person inside the residence that could have been assaulted by Suspect London.

Sergeant Wolanski along with Deputies Chappell and [redacted] forced entry into the residence Suspect London entered ([redacted] Redwood Avenue) because Suspect London had previously committed the crime of 422(a) of the Penal Code book and the possibility Suspect London would assault the person (Witness [redacted]) laying on a mattress near Suspect London.

Sergeant Wolanski debriefed the entire incident to all deputies involved. Sergeant Wolanski ensured all deputy personnel authored supplemental reports if they used or witnessed force.
